VI. COMMITTEE REPORTS:

- Legislative Report – Gertie Kandris
 - The CARE (Community Assistance, Recovery and Empowerment)
 - Court Proposal was unveiled on March 3, 2022 by Governor Newsom's Administration to address California cities struggling to address homeless and mental health crisis on their streets as reported to you at our March 16, 2022 Behavioral Health Board Meeting.
 - It passed in the Legislature with overwhelming support. It is a first in-the-nation framework to empower individuals suffering from untreated schizophrenia and other psychotic disorders.
 - CARE COURT is bolstered by the state's $15.3 billion in funding to tackle homelessness and $11.6 billion annually in mental health services.
 - SB 1338 the Community Assistance, Recovery and Empowerment Act (Senator Umberg and Senator Susan Talamantes Eggman) will provide assistance upstream, ahead of conservatorships and outside the walls of institutions. Under CARE Court, families, clinicians, first responders and others will be able to refer individuals suffering from schizophrenia spectrum or psychotic disorders.
 - CARE COURT will be implemented statewide and will start with a phased-in approach. The first co-hort to implement CARE Court includes Glenn, Riverside, San Diego, Stanislaus, Tuolumne and San Francisco. Tasso asked about the PHF Facility

VII. Directors Report - Cara Dunn
